TAKE A LOOK

ROME

in 3 days

First-Timer's Travel Kit

A thoughtful plan for your first Roman adventure.

Less time planning. More time in Rome.

Three full sightseeing days, organised around the city's great sights - with space for lunch, detours and a slower afternoon.

01 A day-by-day plan

Ancient Rome, the Vatican and the historic centre, with practical pacing and flexible alternatives.

02 The decisions made simpler

Neighbourhood comparisons, airport and city transport guidance, plus a booking checklist.

03 Tools you can take with you

A printable itinerary, editable budget workbook and clickable links to routes and official sources.

DESIGNED FOR FIRST-TIME VISITORS

Independent travellers with three full days who want a clear starting point and the freedom to adapt it.

Ancient Rome, at human pace.

COLOSSEUM / ROME

MORNING

Begin at the Colosseum

Build the morning around your reserved entry. Keep your booking and matching ID handy, and allow time to find the correct entrance.

AFTERWARDS

Read the ruins

Continue to the Forum and Palatine. Choose a few landmarks to understand well, with pauses for water and the uneven terrain.

LATER

Take the pressure off

Have a seated lunch and rest. Leave Monti for a relaxed evening if you still feel fresh.

From the guide: protect your Colosseum reservation; drop extra viewpoints before sacrificing a break. Times and routes are flexible planning suggestions.

Art, water & wandering.

02 / VATICAN & RIVERSIDE

Give the art some time.

Make the Vatican Museums your main visit. Take a proper lunch break before deciding on St. Peter's Basilica and a riverside stroll.

03 / HISTORIC CENTRE

Follow the piazzas.

Link the Spanish Steps, Trevi Fountain, the Pantheon and Piazza Navona. Add Trastevere after a break if your energy allows.

MAKE THE DAYS WORK FOR YOU

Reorder the itinerary around confirmed tickets and opening calendars. A good trip does not depend on completing every optional stop.

The details that make a trip easier.

The full kit goes beyond a list of places. Use it to prepare, keep your bookings together and plan your spending.
